

South pole view.

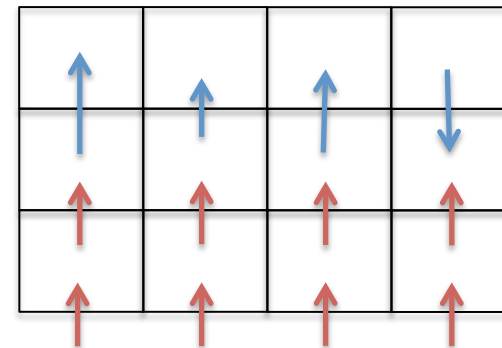

Inner circle (dashed lines) is the first latitude, then second latitude. Both latitude bands are considered as forming one circular cell for transport.

Then there is the 3rd latitude with grid cells.

Lon-lat grid as obtained from diagnostics.

Lower cells are for the south pole.

Red arrows are geometrical average of the total of the blue arrows.

“Red arrows” fluxes are identical to each other.